SEPTEMBER Bible Heroes

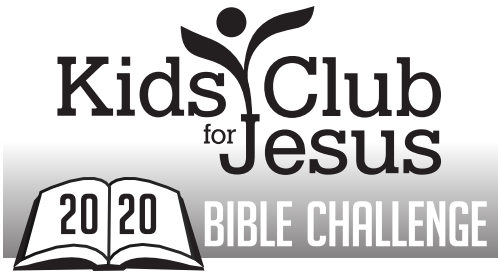

Using the clues below fill in the crossword with the answers. Take the circled letters and unscramble a special word that describes the heroes mentioned. All answers came from the NKJV

ACROSS

- 1A Was told to "Be strong and of good courage" and lead the children of Israel into the promise land.
2A Hid the spies from Israel when they came into Jericho.
3A He appealed to King Artaxerxes of Persia to go rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.
4A This woman led Israel as a prophet and a judge at a time when it was not popular.
5A A prophetess in Jerusalem who spoke the truth that God had given her to the king's men when he sent them to seek counsel with her.
6A Killed a lion and a bear as a young shepherd boy protecting his flock.
7A She risked her life by approaching King Xerxes and revealing that she was a Jew--so that she could help her people.

DOWN

- 1D This man lived in the desert, spoke the truth and called people to repent from their sinful ways.
2D Called A "Mighty man of valor" he stood up for his people against a fierce enemy, the Midianites.
3D This woman saved the King's son (Joash) and his nurse from death after the Queen ordered all the Kings son's to be killed so she could have the throne. (Note: There are two different spellings, use the version found in 2 Kings)
4D This man trusted God--during a storm on a ship and as prisoner--he told the crew of a ship that God said no one would die on that ship, that only the ship would be lost.
5D The King of Egypt asked two Hebrew mid-wives to kill all the hebrew boys who were being born in the land but they feared God and did not do what the Pharaoh asked--instead and saved the hebrew boys that were born in the land. (2 names)
