

Vegetable Lasagna (vegan)

Ingredients

1 med.	onion, slivered
2 cups	sweet peppers (red, yellow, or orange), slivered
3 cups	fresh mushrooms, sliced
3 cups	yellow summer squash, sliced in ¼-inch rounds, then cut in half
3 cups	zucchini, sliced in ¼-inch rounds, then cut in half
2 cups	broccoli, cut into bite-sized pieces
1 teaspoon	sweet basil, dried or fresh
2 teaspoons	parsley, dried or fresh
1 teaspoon	red pepper flakes
2 teaspoons	salt
add to taste	garlic salt
2 cloves	garlic, minced
¼ teaspoon	oregano, dried or fresh
6 cups	spaghetti sauce of your choice
1 package	no-cook lasagna noodles OR whole grain lasagna noodles cooked according to package directions
as needed	non-stick cooking spray

Directions

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Spray a large skillet with non-stick cooking spray. Add onions and over medium heat, sauté until clear. Add peppers and when slightly tender, add remaining vegetables and spices and sauté until tender. Set aside. Spray a 9x13 inch glass baking dish with non-stick cooking spray, then spread 2/3 cup spaghetti sauce evenly over bottom of dish. Layer with 1/3 of the lasagna noodles, 1/3 of the vegetables, and 2/3 cup sauce. Repeat layering in the same order, two more times, for a total of three layers, ending with sauce. Place glass dish on a baking sheet and place in oven. Bake for approximately 40 minutes, or until hot and bubbly. Serve hot!

Yields: 24 – ½ cup servings

**I'm not a huge fan of lasagna, basically because I don't eat cheese that the traditional recipe calls for, and I'm not fond of tofu as a replacement. So, I came up with this recipe and it's one that I can honestly say I love! The red pepper flakes are the "secret ingredient!" You can use your homemade sauce or your favorite purchased sauce. My favorite from the grocery store is "Prego Mushroom Sauce." It has just the right balance of savory with a hint of sweetness!*
